Secondary Review
for
Single Parent Host Family Applicant

(Updated 26Jan2017 – G)

Your Rotary Club recommended you to provide a secondary review of certain qualifications of the person named above to serve as a host family for a Rotary Youth Exchange student.

In addition to the usual vetting for host families, for single adults with no children living in the home, the US Department of State requires a secondary level review by an organizational representative other than the one who recruited and selected the applicant. This review should include demonstrated evidence of good standing in the host community as well as verification of support by the applicant's friends or family who can provide an additional level of care.

Please complete the following to verify completion of the required review. If more space is needed, please provide additional pages.

Evidence that applicant's friends and/or family will provide additional support:

Evidence of the applicant's ties to the host community:
